

Scholarship Opportunity

The Thematic Project "Rupture and Continuity: investigations on the relation between nature and history from its formulation by the great seventeenth century rationalism", coordinated by Professor Marilena Chaui (USP), has open selection process for candidates to 01 postdoctoral scholarship to pursue research in "Ontology and temporality. Relations between nature and history in Spinoza's philosophy". The successful candidate is expected to be involved into the organization's activities in the thematic project, besides his research. The project staff will conduct the selection of the candidates considering the analysis of Curriculum Lattes (<http://lattes.cnpq.br/>), research project in Portuguese compatible with the proposed sub-theme and interview.

Inscriptions: the applicants should send Curriculum Lattes and research project by email to icoliva@usp.br, until November, 30, 2009.

The prerequisites for inscription are:

- Undergraduate, master and / or doctorate in philosophy. Cannot register those who have defended their thesis before December, 31, 2007;
- provide historical of research in seventeenth century's philosophical thought, and especially in Spinoza's philosophy; solid understanding of the history of philosophy;
- Experience in planning activities for research groups and organization of scientific events.