Subject: Statement of Principles and Solidarity

Date: October 1, 2025

The Organization of American Historians (OAH) affirms the principles that guide the work of historians: evidence-based understanding of history, honest engagement with the past, and the crafting of narratives rooted in primary sources. These are central to our profession and essential to public understanding of the past.

In keeping with the OAH's mission to promote excellence in the scholarship, teaching, and presentation of history and to encourage wide discussion of historical questions, we recognize that these professional principles and imperatives transcend national boundaries. The OAH stands with historians across the globe, united through a commitment to these shared values.
